Purpose of the Program

The objective of the U.S. Government Accountability Office's (GAO) International Auditor Fellowship Program (IAFP) is to strengthen the capacity of supreme audit institutions (SAI) and to support the enhancement of accountability and governance worldwide.

Program Content

Fellows participate in classroom training, learn about U.S. intergovernmental auditing experience, and develop strategies to implement change within their respective SAIs. Participants are nominated by the leadership of their SAIs with the expectation that they will transfer the knowledge and skills gained to their institutions.

The IAFP consists of three major segments.

GAO Auditing Practices: Fellows will learn the technical and managerial aspects of performance audits and will be introduced to the policies, procedures, and practices at GAO. Although the primary focus is performance audit, fellows will explore a variety of audit techniques and approaches with an emphasis on knowledge and skills required to complete this type of work. Additionally, fellows will learn how GAO plans, manages, and communicates the results of its work. Fellows will also share information about the auditing practices of their SAIs.

Personal and professional development: Fellows will participate in various classes focused on leadership skills, effective facilitation, writing principles, and team building.

Cultural exchange: Fellows will participate in a number of cultural activities to learn more about U.S. culture and also share their home country culture with program staff and participants.

To the extent possible, fellows also participate in briefings with external organizations such as the Council of Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency and The World Bank.

Program Dates: The 2025 program begins April 2 and ends July 2. A typical day in the program will start around 8:30 am Eastern Time and finish around 4:30 pm. A lunch period is included in the daily schedule.

Each participant selected is required to prepare a special capstone project in the form of a strategy paper during the course of the program. The strategy paper should describe what they expect to accomplish in their audit office as a result of their experience with GAO. Upon acceptance to the program, additional details on the structure and length of the strategy paper will be provided. There are no exceptions to this requirement. We request that the nominees work directly with the Head of the SAI and its leadership to identify a specific topic or area of interest the participant will introduce or champion upon his or her return. The topic or area of interest should relate to the program content. Some examples of topics selected by past participating fellows are "overlap, duplication, and fragmentation," "internal controls," and "effective report writing". As such, please avoid broad or generic topics such as "performance auditing". For additional information, topics covered during the program are listed below on this page. If applicable and to the extent practical, we also recommend you review your SAI's former fellows' strategy paper topics to ensure your topic is either unique or builds off of prior topics.
